Harold and Debra Flatman
Gentle Gems
HC79 Box 122-A
Melba, Id. 83641

- (1) F.M.'s Totam. 1975 Mare, leopard, 15 hands, 1000 lbs. Safe and gentle. Our 8 yr. old rides her. Totam has had five colored foals and one solid (now roaning). We have kept one of her sons at stud and he has thrown 100% color to date plus good size and conformation.

She was used quite a lot as a parade horse for the mounted sheriff's posse.

She has been shown at halter and never placed lower than second.

She's been used for hunting and is an excellent mountain horse, trailers well, good broodmare, and never a problem settling. Used a lot for ponying colts. Goes both English and western.

We are keeping three of her colts/fillies, so she must go. $1,300.00 open--$1,500.00 bred.

- (2) Lesru's Red Willow - 1979 Mare, Red Roan. Very gentle, beautiful conformation. Our twelve year old daughter rides her.

She is 15.2 hands, 1300 lbs. She has had one filly - bay with spots. She has not been used as a broodmare because she was being shown. She was placed 1st in our I.O.N. and Sage Brush circuit point shows at halter. She was high point mare at age two. $1,000.00 open - $1,300.00 bred.

- (3) Gem's Moon Dancer - 1986 Colt. This colt should mature to about 15.2 h. 1,300 lbs. He is now almost black and very flashy. He has every characteristic of an Appaloosa, lightning marks back of legs, striped hooves, eyes and mottled skin. His mother has thrown 100% color - all blankets bays/blacks. His father has thrown 100% color. He should make a super stallion prospect. $1,500.00 firm.

- (4) Gem's Tourmaline - 1984 Stallion. Big, gorgeous colt, now in training. 15.1 h. 1,200 lbs. at 2 yrs. He is exceptionally smart and very gentle. He has shown a tremendous amount of cow sense. He naturally rounds up and holds whatever he comes across. We have bred him to 3 mares to see what he can do in that department.

His price is $2,450.00 firm. Next year he will stand at stud for the introductory fee of $150.00. We plan on putting him in some cutting classes next year. His sire, Crystal was used on a 10,000 head cattle lot for cutting sick cows out of the herd.
